CONCLUSION THROUGH ANALYSIS OF TEACHERS' FEEDBACK

● On Curriculum

The findings are based on teacher's feedback. Most teachers strongly agree that the curriculum is suitable from a program perspective and that the curriculum is need based. Most of the teacher strength is that the objectives of curriculum are clear to the teachers and students and the syllabus balances theory and lab practical. Most teachers are strongly confident that the syllabus and course has increased their knowledge. The teacher is very positive that the course content is interesting and adding new topics has increased my knowledge.

CONCLUSION THROUGH ANALYSIS OF TEACHERS' FEEDBACK

Based on teacher's feedback, we conclude that most tenured teachers strongly agree that the college encourages participatory decision-making by involving its staff and encourages faculty members to adopt new techniques. The examination and evaluation system adopted is effective for the academic performance of most teacher strong students. There is transparency in the purchase of books in the library of most teachers' colleges and there is a very good arrangement of books and journals in the library. Most of the teachers are strongly encouraged that the library has a time and the process of borrowing books is convenient. Most teachers say that the process of purchasing equipment/software in their department is transparent. Most of the teacher's strength is that the college encourages them to go to national seminars, conferences and provides incentives and financial support. Most of the teachers are strong, the classes available in the college, the furniture are good and clean and ICT facilities for faculty members are adequate.
